Among other obligations, the District government is required to:

- Inform requestor if the information cannot be provided promptly and set a date and time to provide it within a reasonable time;
- Request a ruling from the office of the Attorney General regarding any information the governmental body wishes to withhold, and send a copy of the request for ruling, or a redacted copy, to the requestor;
- Make a good faith attempt to inform third parties when their proprietary information is being requested from the governmental body.

The Requestor may:

- Keep all appointments to inspect records and to pick up copies. Failure to keep appointments may result in losing the opportunity to inspect the information at the time requested;
- Cost of Records –
 - You must respond to any written estimate of charges within 10 days of the date the governmental body sent it or the request is considered to be automatically withdrawn;
 - If estimated costs exceed $100.00 (or $50.00 if a governmental body has fewer than 16 full time employees), the governmental body may require a bond, prepayment or deposit;
 - You may ask the governmental body to determine whether providing the information primarily benefits the general public, resulting in a waiver or reduction of charges;
 - Make timely payment for all mutually agreed charges. A governmental body can demand payment of overdue balances exceeding $100.00, or obtain a security deposit, before processing additional requests from you.
